

FASHION & STYLE

PACIFIC TREASURES

ONE OF THE JOYS OF CRUISING is visiting the marketplaces and boutiques found in every port. Around the Pacific Rim, jewelry reflects the essence of each landing. For the discerning cruiser, each port offers a selection of all that's bright and beautiful. Here's what recently caught our eye.

1 SHANGHAI JADE PENDANT

This dazzling pendant marries modern design with the traditional stone that's been the pride of Asia since the days of imperial rule.

*Jadeite with diamonds, price on request
Zhaoyi, 202, 2/F, Bund 18, Huangpu District, Shanghai
zhaoyi.com*

2 HAWAIIAN FLIP-FLOP NECKLACE

The beach will always be near with a necklace that mimics the handy sandal and channels the relaxed vibe of island life.

*14k yellow gold with diamonds, US$429
Na Hoku (available at four Honolulu locations)
nahoku.com*

3 NEW ZEALAND ETCHED CUFF LINKS

The nikau palm and cabbage tree are the most prominent native trees in New Zealand. That's why these icons, etched into a pair of cuff links, were the first designs to inspire this collection.

*Etched sterling silver, US$135
Ash Hilton Jewellery (available at three Auckland locations)
ashhilton.com*

4 SOUTHEAST ALASKA TLINGIT BRACELET

This cuff bracelet carved by hand by native Alaskan Tlingit artist, Gene Chilton, tells a love story. Two lovebirds, eagle and raven, represent the uniting of two Southeast Alaskan native clans in marriage.

*Silver with garnet, US$400
Tripp's Mt. Juneau Trading Post, 151 S. Franklin St., Juneau
mtjuneautradingpost.com*

5 TAHITIAN PEARL EARRINGS

Black pearls from Tahiti's blue lagoons are prized by jewelers around the world for their beauty and color.

*Cultured pearls and diamonds in 18k white gold settings,
US$2,220
Available at the Merabella, a luxury shopping experience aboard select Holland America Line ships.*

Pricing and availability subject to change.

